

A Bibliography of Online Resources on the Law of the Internet

Compiled by the Drake Law Review

AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION COMMITTEE ON CYBERSPACE LAW <<http://www.abanet.org/buslaw/cyber/>>

This subcommittee of the Section of Business Law provides a forum for the business lawyer using networks to conduct business transactions. This site has links to committee reports and other relevant programs and meetings.

AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION FREEDOM NETWORK <<http://www.aclu.org/issues/cyber/hmcl.html>>

Concerned primarily with civil liberty issues pertaining to the Internet, including censorship and privacy, this site provides information on current state and federal laws and proposed legislation. Additionally, this site includes links to the text of relevant court decisions.

THE BERKELEY TECHNOLOGY LAW JOURNAL <<http://www.law.berkeley.edu/journals/btlj/>>

The Berkeley Technology Law Journal Web site includes articles related to technology law as well as information dealing with careers in Intellectual Property and the Intellectual Property programs at Boalt Hall School of Law.

THE BERKMAN CENTER FOR INTERNET & SOCIETY AT HARVARD LAW SCHOOL <http://www.law.harvard.edu/programs/center\_law/>

The Berkman Center is a Harvard University Research Program dedicated to exploring cyberspace and pioneering its development. Its newsletter, The Filter, is available through the site. The site also facilitates remote participation in ICANN open meetings.

BUSINESS AND THE INTERNET: STRATEGY, LAW, AND POLICY, HARVARD UNIVERSITY

<<http://www.law.harvard.edu/courses/tech97/temp/tech98/>>

This site is an archive of the "Business and the Internet" course taught jointly at Harvard Law School, Harvard Business School, and Kennedy School of Government. The site has information pertaining to the interaction of law, business, and Internet policy.

CENTER FOR DEMOCRACY & TECHNOLOGY

<<http://www.cdt.org/>>

The Center for Democracy & Technology has information on policy that affects the Internet in such areas as free speech, data privacy, domain names, and government surveillance. The site also contains information about online political advocacy.

CHICAGO KENT COLLEGE OF LAW CENTER FOR LAW AND COMPUTERS

<<http://www.kentlaw.edu/clc/lrs/lawlinks/computer.shtml>>

Contains links to published articles on defamation and slander in cyberspace, software development and protection, and privacy issues.

CORNELL COMPUTER POLICY AND LAW PROGRAM

<<http://cuinfo.cornell.edu/CPL/Policies/>>

Cornell's Law and Policy Program was founded in 1996 to provide leadership to institutions developing technology policies. The Web site contains a database of links to institutional policies from over 500 organizations around the world, categorized and searchable by type of policy and type of institution.

CYBERSPACE LAW INSTITUTE

<<http://www.cli.org/default.html>>

This Web site contains links to the Cyberspace Law Institute's (CLI) papers on Cyberspace Law. It also contains links to papers written by CLI fellows and friends. Links to courses on Cyberspace Law Issues and Interactive Forms are also available.

DRAKE LAW SCHOOL CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTER
<<http://law.drake.edu/lawCenters/conLawCenter/>>

The Drake Law School Constitutional Law Center hosts the annual Constitutional Law Symposium. The Web site contains information about Drake Law School's various programs in constitutional law.

FEDERALIST SOCIETY FOR LAW AND PUBLIC POLICY STUDIES
<<http://www.fsweb.org/>>

The Federalist Society's Internet Law Project posts discussion and debate on the interrelationship between limited government, privacy, individual liberties, free markets, and the Internet. The Web site contains Federalist Society articles and reports regarding these issues and Internet-related legal and policy issues.

GIGALAW.COM
<<http://www.gigalaw.com/>>

This site is designed for Internet entrepreneurs and attorneys representing them and contains information, including a law library link, discussion list, and articles organized by date and topic about legal issues affecting the Internet.

HARVARD JOURNAL OF LAW AND TECHNOLOGY
<<http://jolt.law.harvard.edu/>>

The Harvard Journal of Law and Technology provides links and citations to articles on the legal implications of the Internet and technology. For a related print resource, see generally Developments in the Law—The Law of Cyberspace, 112 HARV. L. REV. 1574 (1999).

IDEA—THE JOURNAL OF LAW AND TECHNOLOGY
<<http://www.idea.fplc.edu/>>

Publishes articles relating to intellectual property, patents, trademarks, copyrights, unfair competition, and trade secrets.

INTERNET LAW REVIEW

<<http://www.internetlawreview.org/>>

The Internet Law Review is a student-sponsored journal that posts student-authored papers dealing with the legal issues surrounding the Internet.

THE JOHN MARSHALL JOURNAL OF COMPUTER & INFORMATION LAW

<<http://www.jmls.edu/jcil/index.html>>

This Web site includes information about the history of The John Marshall Journal of Computer & Information Law as well as content lists for volumes 12 through 18 of the Journal.

JOURNAL OF HIGH TECHNOLOGY LAW

<<http://www.law.suffolk.edu/stuservices/jhtl/home.html>>

Maintained by Suffolk University Law School, this Web site maintains articles related to technology and the law.

JOURNAL OF SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY LAW

<<http://www.bu.edu/law/scitech/>>

Published by Boston University School of Law, this site contains practical articles in areas of biotechnology, computers and communications, intellectual property, technology transfer, and business law for technology-based companies.

JOURNAL OF TECHNOLOGY LAW & POLICY

<<http://grove.ufl.edu/~techlaw/>>

This journal is a student publication from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. This site contains links to many online technology law Web sites and journals.

JURIST: THE LEGAL EDUCATION NETWORK

<http://jurist.law.pitt.edu/cour\_pgs.htm>

Hosted in the United States by the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, this site has information for law students all around the country. The site contains links to Web pages for specific courses on cyber law at law schools, the courses' syllabi, reading lists, and links to resources. The site also contains links to online legal research sites and information about bar exams and CLE programs.

LAW.COM

<http://www.law.com/>

This site provides a large selection of online, accredited legal seminars. It also provides general legal career sources. Co-sponsor with the Constitutional Law Center of an online seminar February 26 through March 2, 2001, which revisited the issues discussed at the Symposium at Drake Law School.

MICHIGAN TELECOMMUNICATIONS & TECHNOLOGY LAW REVIEW

<http://www.mttlr.org/>

The Michigan Telecommunications & Technology Law Review began as one of the first online law journals and now publishes a print version as well.

PERKINS COIE LLP

<http://www.perkinscoie.com/casedigest/default.cfm>

The Perkins Coie law firm Web site includes an Internet Case Digest that lets users search for cases in fourteen areas of interest, including antitrust, copyright, gambling, and encryption. The site also includes links to the Electronic Commerce/Internet Law Resource Center, Internet Law Online Publications, and General Internet Law Online Research.

THE RESOURCE CENTER FOR CYBERCULTURE STUDIES

<<http://www.otal.umd.edu/~rccs/>>

The Resource Center for Cyberculture Studies is a non-profit online group of the University of Maryland that focuses on collaboration between scholars in various fields to discuss and conduct research on cyberculture.

RICHMOND JOURNAL OF LAW & TECHNOLOGY

<<http://www.urich.edu/jolt/>>

The Richmond Journal of Law & Technology, "the first exclusively online law review," has all current and past articles accessible by the World Wide Web.

SANTA CLARA COMPUTER & HIGH TECHNOLOGY LAW JOURNAL

<<http://www.scu.edu/techlaw/index.html>>

The Journal contains articles from scholars, attorneys, and business persons in the field of high technology law. Topics include: patents, copyrights, trade secret and trademark law; biotechnology, telecommunications, and environmental legal issues; taxation, technology licensing, and other related business issues. The site also contains an extensive list of IP links, including links to federal and state governments, and to legal resources.

STANFORD TECHNOLOGY LAW REVIEW

<http://stlr.stanford.edu/STLR/Core\_Page/index.htm>

Stanford Law School's high technology online journal features articles, working papers, and news and commentary on technology issues. It also features links to virtual symposia organized by topic.

THE TECH LAW JOURNAL

<<http://www.techlawjournal.com/>>

The Tech Law Journal contains information about regulations, litigation, and legislation that affect computers and the Internet. The site includes a Court Watch feature that provides updates on recent cases, federal legislation, and federal regulations.

THE TECHNOLOGY REVIEW

<http://www.techreview.com/>

The Technology Review, an MIT enterprise, is an online review with information concentrating on infotech, biotech, and nanotech. The Technology Review also sponsors events related to emerging technologies.

UCLA BULLETIN OF LAW & TECHNOLOGY

<http://www.law.ucla.edu/students/studentorgs/BLT/>

Publishes full articles addressing the law's attempts to keep pace with technological innovation. This site also contains links to legal resources.

THE UCLA ONLINE INSTITUTE FOR CYBERSPACE LAW AND POLICY

<http://www.gseis.ucla.edu/iclp/hp.html>

This site contains articles written by both law students and legal practitioners concerning cyberspace law issues. The page contains a bibliography of recent books and journal articles on cyberspace law.

UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW PROJECT

<http://www.lawreview.org/>

The University Law Review Project provides a topical directory of Law Journals available on the Internet and provides links to various legal informational sites.

VIRGINIA JOURNAL OF LAW & TECHNOLOGY

<http://www.vjolt.net/>

The Web site for this Journal contains information about past and current archives.

WEST VIRGINIA JOURNAL OF LAW & TECHNOLOGY

<http://www.wvu.edu/~wvjolt/>

This Web site publishes full articles in its current issue.

YALE LAW AND TECHNOLOGY SOCIETY

<<http://lawtech.law.yale.edu>>

This Web site provides a forum for discussing the interplay between law and technology. It includes a link to the Yale Symposium on Law and Technology, which features transcripts of speakers, audio interviews, and student written works. It also has a link to the Lawtalk Real Audio archives from the Society's weekly radio program.